

WORKSHOP:
Introduction to Gates & the Extreme Games Challenge
Presented by Sharon Nelson

Friday, August 6th, 2010
Quad City Dog Center
2390 West Lake Boulevard
Davenport, IA 52804

Come and learn NADAC's newest handling challenge in the region's premier dog sport facility. Sharon will offer two workshops open to teams of all levels. Learn on Friday; test your skills at the Extreme Games Challenge Trial at the site on Saturday and Sunday. All activities will be indoors in air conditioned comfort on sports turf. First workshop will run 9 am until noon and a second from 6 pm until 9 pm. Working spots will be limited to 15 teams per session. Unlimited audit spots are available. This is a handling workshop to improve your skills. Dogs entered should be familiar with agility equipment (except gates) and ready to compete at least at the entry level.

For directions, please visit our website at:

Disclaimer and Waiver of Liability

By signing below, I freely and willingly agree to the following statements: I agree that I am responsible for the animals under my control (whether or not owned by me) that participate in any dog event, at any time, at the Quad City Dog Center (QCDC), and that I will be liable for any injuries or damage that such animals may cause to the facilities, myself, or any other participants, spectators, instructors, visitors or animals. Although I understand that animals may act unpredictably at times, I will do my best to provide the instructors and individuals in charge with full disclosure of any known aggressive tendency toward people or other dogs of the animals under my control. I realize that I may be excused from any class or dog event for the past or present actions of the animals under my control and that this decision is solely up to the instructors and owners of the QCDC. I further agree to hold harmless and release the QCDC, North American Agility Council and the instructors of the classes or events that I participate in from any and all liabilities for any injury to myself or the animals under my control, regardless of the cause of such injury. This hold harmless and waiver of liability shall apply to all causes of action, that occur at any time while I am on the premises of the QCDC, whether or not participating in a class or dog event, that I may have under any law or regulation, and is a condition of my participation in classes or dog events at the QCDC.
